Please note that a certificate is NOT a diploma or a degree; it is a supplement to a student's education and provides professional career preparation.

In order to qualify for the completed certificate, students must earn a grade of C or higher in all certificate courses. Students must apply to the certificate program before completing six (6) credit hours of courses in the certificate program.

Undergraduate Certificate Checklist

Public Administration Certificate

The Reubin O'D. Askew School of Public Administration and Policy offers an executive development program which leads to a certificate in Public Administration. Applicants can be registered as degree seeking or non-degree seeking students. If not already in an undergraduate program, students must apply as non-degree seeking students with the university through the Office of Admissions in addition to submitting this application to the department.

The certificate requires twelve (12) credit hours, or four courses, with a grade of "C" or better in Public Administration.
